

Marie Sklodowska-Curie Individual Fellowship - OPEN CALL

Marie Sklodowska- Curie Actions support career development and training of researchers through worldwide and cross-sector mobility. National Institute of Chemistry, Ljubljana, Slovenia, encourages researchers to apply for a grant with National Institute of Chemistry as Host Institution.

National Institute of Chemistry, Ljubljana, Slovenia, is a leading Slovenian research institution in the field of chemistry and related disciplines. Close to 300 employees publish more than 250 scientific papers yearly and are strongly involved in EU funded projects.

Currently, approximately 50 graduate students are being trained at the Institute within the national Young Researchers Program for the acquisition of their PhD degrees. The young researchers represent about 20% of the Institute's staff members, making National Institute of Chemistry one of the leading Slovenian organizations for graduate-level education and training.

NIC research is focused on life sciences, materials, engineering and analytics:
