SC5 LC-CLA-16-2020: Nature based solutions for forest fires risk reduction and multi hazard risk management in the E.U.

Experience

‘Regional Eastern European Fire Monitoring Center and Education’ and ‘Research Institute of Forestry and Landscape-Park Management’ have extended experience in international projects (TASIS, FP-7, CoE, OSCE, Horizon 2020) related to sustainable forest management, integrated fire management, safety issues in the Chernobyl Exclusion Zone, areas of military conflict, areas of ecological danger (Oleshkivski sand dunes in the Kherson region). The Center participated in projects developing fire management strategy on national and regional levels, assessment and modelling of fire risks, fire regime studies, flammable materials models, on-line platform for spatio-temporal evaluation of forest fire factors and risk, use of remote sensing instruments for forest fire and radionuclide emission monitoring, IT solutions for effective decision making for forest fire management, as well as training seminars on safety and fire extinguishing for forest personnel.
